Small Candles

The system seemed to work well so we will continue until things get back to normal.

New Rules

Whilst we could not have Mass without the stewards, for whom we are very grateful, it has got to be said that you are all making it very easy. Things are so different right now, but you have given your full cooperation whenever asked, so thank you all very much.

CAFOD APPEAL

Another £25 has been donated to the emergency appeal. Thank you so much. We intend keeping the appeal going for a few weeks more. Please be as generous as you can.

Special Collections

The Bishops of England & Wales have decided that the special collections which were missed during the lockdown period will take place at future dates. We will let you know in advance when these collections are to be taken.

Gift Aid

Thank you so very much to those of you taxpayers who gift aid your offertory collection. Our parish was able to reclaim £3084.34 this year. Wonderful!

Standing Orders

Just a reminder that the standing order forms are on the table in the porch if you would like to have your offertory donation paid directly from your bank /building society rather than using the envelope system.

Deacon Stephen Scott

You may be aware that Deacon Stephen Scott of St Begh's Parish and his wife Ann will be leaving the area and the parish in the next month or so and are moving to pastures new to be nearer to family in Manchester. It is planned to arrange a farewell Mass at some time in the future at St Begh's when it is appropriate to do so. Please remember them in your prayers as they conclude their preparations as we all know how stressful moving home can be.

Prayer for Students Awaiting Exam Results in These Unusual Times

Give them peace in their hearts, their bodies, their minds, their souls, as they await patiently for their exam results. Amen

Thank you for your offerings last week that were as follows: Offertory: £227.86

No second collection last week

No second collection this week

No second collection next week
