A Londoner is staying with his auntie and uncle in Yorkshire. One morning, the man goes out for a stroll and his uncle asks him to buy a newspaper on the way. The man has his walk, then pops into a newsagents. He goes to the counter to buy the paper but realises he can't remember which one to get. "This is embarrassing," says the man to the newsagent, "I was asked to get a paper but I can't remember which one. I think it began with a 't'." "Well, that's not much use to me," says the newsagent, "that could be anything: t'Observer, t'Times, t'Guardian, t'Mail"
