The principal celebrant and preacher is Bishop Michael Campbell OSA and will include Mass and Blessing of the Sick. Tea/Coffee is available before and after the pilgrimage in the parish room. Weeding

We've had 3 volunteers to do the weeding around the Church frontage for us. Hopefully the weather will be kind and they'll get it done soon. Thanks fellas!!

Emergency Exit

Now that the side doors have been replaced, they will be left unlocked during services in case of emergency. The keys to the perimeter gate will be kept in the Sacristy, also during services, should we need to evacuate quickly.

Catholic Trust for England & Wales

The second collection today is the Bishop's levy on our parish. This means that no matter how much is donated in the collection a set amount will be taken from our bank account.

This week they are really short of the following items: tinned vegetables, tinned soup, tinned tomatoes, tinned fish, tinned sponge pudding & pasta sauce. Please help if you are able.

As we are losing Brendan, who is leaving today to take up a new job, we are looking to add readers to the existing rota. Currently it works out at every 5 weeks but less if we get any offers. So, if you fancy giving it a go just have a word with Dennis Gainford. Thank You.

Barry and Janet are sitting on the sofa watching a medical documentary about people in comas. Barry leans over to Janet and says, "Just so you know, I never want to end up like that. I'd hate to be lying there endlessly dependent on some machine, getting fluids out of a bottle. If I ever end up like that, just pull the plug." So Janet gets up, unplugs the television and throws Barry's beer out of the window.
