Dick runs into a doctor's surgery. "Help me doctor," he says, "I got stung by a bee. The pain's terrible." "Don't worry," says the doctor, "I'll put some cream on it." "You'll never find it," replies Dick, "that bee must be miles away by now." "No," says the doctor, "I'll put some cream on the place where you were stung." "I see," says Dick, "well, I was stung in my back garden." "No," says the doctor, through gritted teeth, "I'll put it on the part of your body that was stung." "Ah," says Dick, "well, the bee stung me on a finger." "Which one?" exclaims the doctor. "How should I know? says Dick, "all those bees look the same to me."
