Fund Raising Grid

We are having a money raising grid next Sunday which will be drawn after Mass if enough squares are sold. £1 per square - prizes are 1st - £15, 2nd - £10 & 3rd - £5.

Please give your usual fantastic support.
Thank you to the parishioners who have donated towards the prize money.
Sorry if I confused you last week - it is definitely on next Sunday!

Father Aelred

Father Aelred is now waiting to be transferred back to the hospital he left a couple of weeks ago! Talk about musical beds!

Book Sale

This is the last week the books will be on sale. If there are any you want, please take them and just make a donation to Church funds. Thank you. Any remaining books after today's Mass will be donated to charity.

Foodbank

The items they are short of this week - tinned fish, dried pasta tinned custard, tinned fruit & pasta sauce.
Please help if you can.

Quay Street Chapel

Sheila R has copies of a letter of objection regarding the planning application for development which will affect Quay Street Chapel, just sign it, add your address & give it back to her. This is the last day to be able to take part so see Sheila and help St Begh's parish to ensure the chapel is retained as a unique building for posterity.

First Holy Communion

Please keep the children in your prayers as they continue working through their preparation. First Holy Communion day is Sunday 26th May during the 10am Mass.

Whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God
1 Corinthians 10:31

A rich businessman goes on holiday. While he's away his butler sends him a message saying 'Cat's dead'. Distraught at the death of his beloved pet the man returns home and berates the butler for being so callous. "You should break bad news gently, says the businessman, "if I'd been telling you that your cat was dead I'd have written, 'The cat's on the roof and can't get down'. A few hours later I'd have written, 'the cat's fallen off the roof and is badly hurt'. A while later I would have sent another message saying, 'the cat has sadly passed away'." "Very good, sir," says the butler, "I'll remember that in future." The businessman resumes his trip, books into his hotel and finds that the butler has left another message, it says, 'Your mother is on the roof and can't get down'.
