A Sincere Thank You

To everyone who so generously donated to last week's offertory collection. Father Ed.

Father Ed

There are no mid-week services here this week while Father Ed takes a short break.

Little Lambs

Our Children's Liturgy Group will restart today, just meet at the back of Church. All children are more than welcome to join in with the scripture readings at their own level.

Foodbank

The items they are short of this week are - biscuits, tinned fruit, tinned rice pudding, UHT fruit juice & pasta sauce. Please help if you can. Thank You.

Mass Intentions

The Masses requested for the coming week will be carried over until the following week when Father Ed returns.

Bereavement Service

Just a reminder that our annual Service for the Bereaved will be held on 28th May at 7pm. As has been said before, this is not just for the recently bereaved, it is a short, peaceful service for everyone.

First Holy Communion

The preparation for the children making their First Holy Communion recommences today at 9.15am in the presbytery.

The Tablet

Father Aelred had paid his annual subscription to the above weekly Catholic publication prior to his death. As they will continue to arrive until the subscription expires, we have placed them all on the table in the porch. If you would like to read any of them please take them home with you. I'm sure he would be pleased that they were being read rather than kept in the office serving no purpose.

Feast of St Joseph the Worker - 1st May

St Joseph is a model for all those in search of employment. We ask his intercession to help those who are trying to find gainful employment. Amen

Treat everyone with politeness, even those who are rude to you — not because they are nice, but because you are.

A brown paper bag goes to his doctor feeling unwell. The doctor takes all sorts of samples and asks the bag to come back next week. Next week the bag returns and the doctor says, "I'm afraid I have bad news. We discovered from your blood tests that you have haemophilia." "Haemophilia?" says the bag. "How can that be? I'm a brown paper bag." "Yes," replies the doctor, "but it seems your mother was a carrier."

Thank you for your offerings last weekend that were as follows: Offertory: £380.50

Good Friday collection for Holy Places raised £49.30

No second collection this week

No second collection next week
