“How greatly I desire that all those places where the Church is present may become islands of mercy in the sea of indifference” Pope Francis.

Harvest Fast Day

The retiring collection today is the opportunity to return the envelopes you took home with you last week. Please give generously. Also, if you are a taxpayer please consider gift aiding your donation so that CAFOD can claim 25p for every £1 you give – just complete the form attached to the envelope. Thank you.

Year of Mercy

Jesus came to heal the broken-hearted, to mend the bruised reed. He came to soothe the pain, to wash away our own sin and cleanse us from all impurity. We can experience his love and forgiveness and this can become a new memory, and then, like Mary, we can treasure and ponder in our hearts the riches of God's mercy and we can start to rejoice and to live life anew.

St Mary's School

The children will be joining us for Mass on Tuesday to celebrate the new term. Please come along and celebrate with them. Everyone is welcome.
