Mass Online

Bit late in the day, but if you have access to a computer there is a Garden Mass being celebrated weekly by Father Denis McBride which is certainly worth watching.
Just go to www.rpbbooks.co.uk and give it a go.

CAFOD APPEAL

Another £50 has been donated to the emergency appeal. Thank you so much. We intend keeping the appeal going for a few weeks more. Please be as generous as you can.

Catholic Trust for England & Wales

The collection towards the annual levy will take place next week. At the time of typing the bulletin we do not know the amount we are to be levied, no doubt we will find out soon. This figure will be taken from our bank account regardless of how much is taken in our collection.

Exam Results

Hopefully our young students have managed to get the results they needed despite the ordeal they have been put through. Best wishes to them all for their future.

Small Candles

The system seemed to work well so we will continue until things get back to normal.

Sports Shop Drama, Man Injured

It has been reported that a customer has fallen into a large display of 250 golf clubs. Doctors stated that although he is ok, he is not out of the woods yet!
