Today is a Day of Prayer for Peace

Lord, we pray for the power to be gentle, the strength to be forgiving, the patience to be understanding and the endurance to accept the consequences of holding on to what we believe to be right. May we put our trust in the power of good to overcome evil and the power of love to overcome hatred. We pray for the vision to see and the faith to believe in a world emancipated from violence a new world where fear shall no longer lead men to commit injustice, nor selfishness to make them bring suffering to others. Amen

Book Sale

As we have had little interest in the books over the past few weeks we are going to remove them from the porch soon. If there are any of interest to you please take them and just make a donation to Church funds. Thank you.

To hire the hall contact Billy Starkey on 61448

Sammy the poacher was going about his trade, pulling a well-filled net from a fine trout stream, when he heard someone stealthily approaching. He froze as he heard a shotgun being cocked and a rough voice saying, "Stop what you're doing right this instant or it'll be the worse for you, my lad!" "Who are you?" Sammy quavered. "I'm the bailiff on this stretch of river, who did you think it was?" "Phew!" said Sammy, sounding relieved, "I thought you might be the bloke who'd put this net in the river."
