Blessing – Taken from the Walk With Me Booklet

Before I consider forgiving another person, Lord, remind me that I have lost count of the number of times you have forgiven me.

When I am faced with the judgement of another person, Lord, bless me with the gifts of solidarity and understanding, which were not shown to you. As now, Lord, I prepare to accompany you through the Great Week, bless me with new insights as I hear your word proclaimed anew and play my part in the drama of your Passion, Death and Resurrection. Amen.
